English

Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

There are many stories of Lincoln's kindness to animals. Once he was riding in the company of some lawyer friends. On their way they saw a pig struggling to get out of deep mud hole into which it had fallen. If left in the hole the poor animal was sure to die. Lincoln could not bear the thought of it .He went up to the hole and stood for some time, looking now at the pig and the new clothes he had on .His friends ,who knew what he was thinking ,made of fun of him, saying "Lincoln You can stay here and attend to the pig if you like. You are dressed for the job. We shall go along". Lincoln waited for them to pass around a bend on the road. Then picked up some rails that were lying nearby, he used them to get out of the hole, and watched it run to the nearest farm. Then he looked down his clothes. He has found them covered with mud and completely spoilt.Though he would not be able to join his friends now, he was happy he had saved a pig's life.
