English

Class: VII

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

When a person tells the story of his life in his own words it is called an autobiography. Gulliver, a sailor, was once caught in the land of giants. This is how he describes his experience. On the 16th of June 1730 we discovered land. Our captain sent a dozen men with vessels for water, if any could be found. When we came to land we saw no river or spring nor any inhabitants. The country was barren and rocky. It was impossible for me to climb because every step was six feet length. I discovered one of the inhabitants. His voice was much louder than a trumpet.

Questions:

1. Why did the captain send the men to the land?
2. On which year they discovered the land?
3. Was there any river or spring?
4. How was the country?
5. Why was it difficult to climb?
