UNSEEN COMPREHENSION

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:

FLORA NIGHTINGALE

Flora was a very young and kind girl. She was ten years old. As a young girl, she liked to look after the sick farmers. One day Flora saw an old shepherd's dog. It was hurt. Its leg was broken. She bandaged the broken leg with care. When Flora grew older, she decided to become a nurse. When she told her parents that she wanted to be a nurse, they were very happy. Her parents allowed her to go to study in Germany.

Flora was an excellent student. After finishing her studies, she came back to the city of London. She got a job of running a hospital. Flora again went to a place to help the wounded soldiers of England. She took great care of the soldiers. The soldiers at the hospital thought that Flora Nightingale was a great lady.
