

Annual Exam

USE OF WILL AND MIGHT:

‘Will’ is used to indicate something that is sure to happen. ‘Might’ is used to indicate the possibility of something to happen.

Eg: I will meet him tomorrow.

It might rain on Sunday.

I. Fill in the blanks with will / might

1. Hard work _____ surely bring rewards.
2. It _____ be risky to swim in the winter.
3. It is a little difficult to achieve but I _____ get it.
4. I think I _____ walk to the station.
5. I have completed my homework. So I _____ tennis today.
6. I _____ give my address when I find somewhere to live.
7. The meeting _____ have finished by now.
8. You can't disturb him because he _____ be sleeping.
9. He _____ go to the University for Higher Studies.
10. My uncle _____ come next week.
11. She _____ not be working today.
12. I couldn't find her, she _____ have gone home early.
13. I have forgotten my purse, it _____ be in the car.
14. Rani _____ go to London this summer.
15. In his current form, he _____ lose the match.

ADVERBS OF MANNER, PLACE AND TIME

Adverb of manner answers the question how

Eg. She writes neatly. (How does she write?)

Adverb of place answers the question where.

Eg. I live behind the school. (Where do you live?)

Adverbs of time answers the question when.

Eg. I hurt my knee yesterday. (when did you hurt your knee?)

II. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the adverbs.

1. I have heard this story _____.
2. Who gave the permission to go _____?
3. Govind reads _____.

4. We shall _____ begin to work.
5. This story is _____ written.
6. He comes here _____.
7. Wasted time _____ returns.
8. I have not seen him _____ November.
9. The child slept _____.
10. He crawled forward _____.
11. The Sikhs fought _____ for the country,
12. He _____ moved away from the scene.
13. He called me a few minutes _____.
14. Dengue is spreading _____.
15. Sam wrote the answers _____.

III. Write a descriptive essay using adjectives.

Al Khozama International School, Dammam

(B. E. S. T. Schools, Saudi Arabia)

Class: 5

Worksheet- 2

Subject: English

Annual Exam

I. Read the passage. Then answer each question.

The fish hawk, or osprey, is not as large as the eagle, but he has a hooked bill and sharp claws like the eagle. His is a dark brown in color with black and white spots, and he is from twenty to twenty-two inches long. His breast is mostly white. His tail and wings are long. The fish hawk is often found sitting upon a tree over a pond, lake, or river. He is also found by the seaside. He watches the fish as they swim in the water beneath him, and then he darts down suddenly and catches one of them. When he catches a fish in his sharp, rough claws, he carries it off to eat, and, as he flies away with it for his dinner, an eagle sometimes meets him. The eagle flies at him fiercely with his sharp bill and claws and compels the hawk to drop the fish. Then the eagle catches the fish as it falls and carries it off. The poor fish hawk, with a loud cry, timidly flies away. He must go again to the water and catch another fish for his dinner. So you see that the eagle is a robber. He robs fish hawks, whose only mode of getting a living is by catching fish.

1. Where do fish hawks live?

2. Why does the fish hawk let the eagle take its fish?

3. How are fish hawks and eagles alike?

4. Why do you think fish hawks live where they do?

II. Read the poem and find out the rhyming scheme. Colour all rhyming words.

My eyes fill up in tears,
as I miss you through the years.
I lie in bed at night
as I think of this scary fright.

I love you with all my heart.

I wish we wouldn't have to be apart.

I keep thinking that this can't be real.

I wish you only knew how I feel.

Tears roll down my face

To see you in such a happy place.

I hope we will meet again someday

So the pain inside me will wash away.

III. Find out the rhyming scheme.

Sitting sadly on my bed

Listening to the wild winds blow,

Crying bitterly behind my hair,

Trying not to let it show.

Knowing that you won't be back.

You left without good-byes,

Never to mend my broken heart,

Letting loose my cries.

Every day I waited

And every day I prayed,

Hoping God would leave you here

At least just one more day.