

REVISION WORKSHEET EVALUATION-II (2017 – 2018)

Grade 7

Subject: Social Science

Block 22, 23 & 26

1. Why do you think most countries in the world have a democratic form of government? Support your answer with reasons?
2. In India, people elect representatives to the government. There are elections every 5 years. Decisions are taken collectively by elected representatives. People are free to criticize the government and they enjoy many fundamental rights. Find the democratic features from this passage and write them down. How is a democratic government different from an authoritarian government?
3. Underline the words that are associated with democracy
One-person rule, collective decision, unlimited power, election, rule of law, dictator, authoritarian, equality, liberty
4. What do you mean by a political party? Write any 3 important features of a political party
5. A. Over the last few years, many regional parties have been formed in India. Why do you think there are so many regional parties in the country today? Explain with an example
B. How do regional parties help when no single party wins majority seats in the election?
6. The communist party of China is the single most powerful party of China. What would have prevented the party from enjoying unlimited powers? Give 2 reasons for your answer.

7. How do you think the state government helps in providing healthcare to people?
What would happen if the government did not provide these facilities?
8. Getting proper treatment is a challenge for some people in both private and government hospitals. Support this statement with reasons
9. Write whether True or False. Rewrite the false statements to make them true
 - a. The MLAs are elected by the people from different constituencies
 - b. Every state of India has a Legislative Assembly and a Legislative council
 - c. The Chief Minister of a state is appointed by the Presidents of India
 - d. The party that wins majority seats in the election is the opposition party
 - e. The Legislative Assembly is the executive organ of the state.
